IncSmart Partners with Licenselogix

(IncSmart California) – IncSmart.biz Inc. and LicenseLogix have partnered to streamline your license compliance! Most businesses require one or more licenses and registrations, but the requirements can be confusing, and the agencies are byzantine. LicenseLogix researches your requirements and handles all the paperwork and communication with the bureaucrats. You focus on your business, we focus on your compliance!

Our experts file thousands of business licenses a month on behalf or our clients - they are skilled and fast at filling out the right forms and know how to reach the licensing authorities in case of questions/concerns. Let us handle your license filing process so you can focus on your core business.

IncSmart is your partner on your new Corporation and new LLC, not just another payment. We pride ourselves in providing our customers with tools that business people need to keep in GOOD STANDING.

IncSmart will continue to offer a sliding scale for Agent Services. One (1) year for $49, Two (2) years for $88 and Three (3) years for $117. We always hold true that the best way to make money is to save money. We strive to keep fees open with our fee disclosures for every state.

IncSmart has been serving companies as their agent for over 20 years. We recently added the Business Glossary to the Resource Section of our webpage. We encourage our customers to explore the many options and services offered.
